“A talent show brings hundreds of young people to the stage ages 5 to 25. Hundreds more parents and neighbors and friends watch on as they give it their all. ‘This is everything. It brings the community together and gives them a platform to showcase talent’ [Says ASP of Dallas youth performer, Officially Lenno]. Over 200 young people signed up to perform while many worked backstage making sure everything ran smoothly. The event was held on the lawn at the African-American museum at Fair Park.”
