

WPIX-11 News Features All Stars Talent Show Network in the Story “Building Community Through Performance”

November 17, 2017

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION! All Stars Project and All Stars Talent Show Network were featured in a story, “Building Community Through Performance” aired by New York’s WPIX-11 evening news on Friday, November 17 and a second time on Sunday night! Hosted by the station’s renowned weatherman, Mr. G, the piece featured ASP Vice President of Youth and Community Development, Gloria Strickland, ASP of New York’s Program Coordinator for Outreach and Youth Development, Jamel Thigpen and several young performers, including Mark Johnson, who graciously agreed to sing a “duo” with Mr. G.

We hope you will watch and share this fun TV segment!
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YCi7I5cWqZs&feature=youtu.be>