
Transforming lives of youth from underserved communities in partnership with caring adults and business leaders

The Road to Why with Ed Christmas

August 24th, 2023

“My why in life is to improve the lives of others.”, shares Antoine Joyce-Roach, Vice President and City Leader, All Stars Project of Dallas. Antoine takes us through his personal journey and how it ties to the history of the All Stars Project from New York to Dallas. His passion to give back is contagious and inspiring. His focus is to build community by bridging racial, economic, and social divisions to develop a caring 21st Century America.

Scan this QR code to listen to the interview with Antoine