FALL BENEFIT AND GOLF CLASSIC 2025

Thursday, September 25

Join us for one event... or both!

ALL STARS PROJECT OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA

Join us for a day at the Presidio that's about more than golf – it's about Building a brighter future for underserved young people.

Spend an afternoon playing golf or an evening at a cocktail reception – or both! – to support All Stars Project's innovative approach to afterschool development. You'll meet All Stars alumni, connect with local leaders and board members, and help open doors for young people from underserved Bay Area communities. Your participation provides a critical experience that fuels their growth and development, while building their network of caring professional adults.

Advancing Youth Development in the Bay Area & Beyond

The All Stars Project transforms the lives of inner-city young people in the Bay Area and nationwide through high touch, high impact virtual and in-person afterschool workshops and summer internship experiences. Caring adults and partner companies support the growth and development of youth and the community while creating positive and unique connections across social and economic divides.

The Bay Area is All Stars' innovation hub, where new ideas and partnerships fuel national impact.

Bay Area Impact

300 YOUTH participated in All Stars' in-person programs led by dynamic partnerships with Cristo Rey, Deloitte, RBC, Cooley, Grosvenor, and more

Development Coaching Program

1,624 PARTICIPANTS across the country helping build leadership, confidence, and career readiness

Alumni Network

6,906 ALL STARS ALUMNI creating lasting change nationwide

Partner Organizations

487 PARTNERS in 2024 creating new opportunities for young people

What starts in the Bay Area is spreading coast-to-coast —

Redefining what's possible for youth growing up in poverty.
