About the All Stars Project

All Stars Project is a leading national nonprofit organization that creates programs where underserved youth learn to perform on stage – and in life! Our afterschool development offerings reach nearly 10,000 youth and their families every year in New York City, Newark, Jersey City, Chicago, Dallas, the San Francisco Bay Area, and now everywhere virtually — all completely free of charge! Our programs are proven to grow confidence, personal responsibility, and vocational competence. And they bring our young people together with caring adults from all walks of life, creating opportunities for both to grow and develop together!

Our Programs

All Stars Talent Show Network

Our All Stars Talent Show Network (ASTSN) involves young people, ages 5 to 25, in producing and performing in hip-hop talent shows and performance workshops in their neighborhoods. Young people at all levels of talent are included and everyone who auditions makes the show. And youth without a "traditional" performance talent are invited to participate as ticket takers, ushers, sound and light engineers, and more. They are cheered on by audiences of family, neighbors, volunteers and donors. This experience is transformative for all!

Development School for Youth (DSY)

The DSY is a youth and leadership development program that introduces young people to the business world and supports their growth through workshops led by New York corporate partners. Together with companies including Aon, JPMorgan, RBC Capital Markets, EY, Paramount Global, MetLife, CBRE, and Deloitte, over 7,000 young people from across the country have developed through workshops,, built important networks, and participated in summer internships that have changed the trajectory of their lives.

Development Coaching

Development Coaching connects young people from across the country with caring adults and industry leaders to build a new type of relationship together. Over an 8 to 10-week period, coaches and youth connect through weekly conversations and positively impact each young person's professional and personal development. Over 1,500 young people and adult coaches have successfully paired together since the program was founded in 2020, including youth and coaches from all over the country.

Bridge-Building Programs

ASP has developed bridge-building initiatives focused on addressing the social and racial divides in America. Through our award-winning, police-community relations program Cops & Kids, we have worked with over 5,000 NYPD and Newark Police officers to create empathy and understanding between our youth and officers. In Operation Conversation, we are making an impact in helping corporations build culture by helping employees develop new skills around appreciation, listening, and exercising their "curiosity muscles." All our programs are building diverse relationships that engage racism and promote racial healing in everyday life through the power of performance.

Development School for Youth Trustees

Since its launch in 1997, the All Stars Project's Joseph A. Forgione Development School for Youth (DSY) has graduated more than 7,000 inner-city youth from its leadership training program in New York City and nationwide.

We are proud to celebrate the thousands of young people and business partners whose lives have been transformed through this program. At the DSY, youth from underserved communities in the five boroughs of New York City and beyond partner with the business community to learn to perform as professionals.

Over ten weeks of after-school workshops, students meet business leaders in insurance, finance, law, media, and other industries, develop skills in resume writing, public speaking, professional dress, and interviewing, and upon graduation, become eligible for paid summer internships with our partner companies.

On Tuesday, November 18, we will bring together 300 business leaders, community builders, alumni and current students to honor the DSY Trustees, our dedicated leadership body working to grow the Development School for Youth. This dynamic group spans industries, generations, and stages of career, yet they share a deep commitment to our mission and to creating opportunities for the next generation. As a door-opening, corporate partnership, and fundraising force, our Trustees are a shining example of the inclusive, cross-sector community we are building at All Stars Project of New York. We invite you to join us in celebrating their dedicated work and ongoing support of DSY students throughout the year.
